 2012 SCHOLARSHIP NOTICE *****

The Redwood Region Logging Conference now accepting applications for the Emanuel Fritz Memorial Scholarship.

Professor Emanuel Fritz is known as a pioneer in the redwood region for his efforts in promoting the use and sustainability of second growth redwood forests. He was instrumental in the development of the California Forest Practice Rules, the purchase of Jackson State Demonstration Forest, and is the founder of the Redwood Region Logging Conference. This scholarship is provided to students in the spirit and memory of Emanuel Fritz.

Upon qualification, cash scholarships of up to $2,000 will be awarded to a freshman, sophomore, junior or returning senior who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate forestry program at California Polytechnic State University, Humboldt State University, and/or University of California, Berkeley.

Those interested should complete the two-page application (available on line at www.rrlc.net):

In addition, you need to submit college transcript(s) with your application. Transcripts need not be “Official Transcripts” but must include your name, total GPA, and history of classes with grades.

All material should be submitted no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, February 3, 2012. Applications will be reviewed by the scholarship committee and qualified applicants will be interviewed. The scholarship(s) will be presented at the 74th session of the Redwood Region Logging Conference in Ukiah, CA being held on March 15-17, 2012.
