 SCHOLARSHIP NOTICE ***

The Redwood Region Logging Conference is now accepting applications for the Kent L. Holmgren Memorial Scholarship.

Kent L. Holmgren was a fourth generation Humboldt County resident. He was a timberland owner, a logger, a registered professional forester and a sawmill owner. Mr. Holmgren was involved with the development of State forest practice rules and forester licensing regulations. He served on the College of the Redwoods Advisory Board and on the Redwood Region Logging Conference Board. He was a member of the Forest Landowners of California and the Association of California Loggers. This scholarship is provided to students in the spirit and memory of Kent L. Holmgren.

Upon qualification, up to two cash scholarships of $500 will be awarded to a freshman or sophomore who is currently enrolled in the forestry program at the College of the Redwoods (CR), and has at least 2 semesters left in the year before graduation. Person(s) completing their final semester at CR who have been accepted at an accredited forestry school to continue their forestry education are also eligible.

Those interested should prepare a brief written application (available on line at www.rrlc.net):

Write a narrative essay (2 pages maximum) addressing the following topics:

- Your future career goals after you graduate. What would be your ideal job?
- Your favorite forestry class. Why?
- Past forestry experience, including past employment, and any pertinent extra-curricular activities. How has this experience influenced your future career goals?

In addition, you need to submit college transcript(s) with your application. Transcripts need not be “Official Transcripts”.

All material should be submitted no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, February 5, 2010. Applications will be reviewed by the scholarship committee. Successful applicants will be interviewed during the week of February 15th. The scholarship will be presented at the 72nd session of the Redwood Region Logging Conference in Ukiah, California, on Saturday, March 27, 2010.
