*** SCHOLARSHIP NOTICE ***

The Redwood Region Logging Conference and The Forest Foundation are now accepting applications for the Ron Adams Memorial Scholarship.

Ron Adams was a 1940 Forestry graduate from UC Berkeley. He spent most of his career managing the CDF nursery program. He developed the first mechanical tree-planting machine and authored the CDF Seed Catalog. Upon his retirement, Ron became active in educating the public about forestry in California. He became a Co-Manager of the Forest Center at Cal Expo in Sacramento. Ron was truly dedicated to educating the public about the importance of forest management in California. This scholarship is provided to students in the spirit and memory of Ron Adams.

Upon qualification, one scholarship, up to $2,000, will be awarded to a freshman, sophomore, junior or returning senior who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate forestry program at California Polytechnic State University, Humboldt State University, or University of California, Berkeley. In addition, a graduate from one of these universities with a degree in forestry and who is enrolled in a graduate program or law school may also apply. This award will specifically target students interested combining their forestry education with the following fields of interest: communications, legislative policy, and natural resource administration or education.

Those interested should prepare a brief written application (available on line at www.rrlc.net):

Write a narrative essay (2 pages maximum) addressing the following topics:

- Your future career goals after you graduate. What would be your ideal job?
- How has your forestry education prepared you for pursuing your field of interest?
- Past forestry experience including past employment that focuses on your field of interest and any pertinent extra-curricular activities. How has this experience influenced your future career goals?

In addition, you need to submit college transcript(s) or a copy of your forestry degree with your application. Transcripts need not be “Official Transcripts”.

All material should be submitted no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, February 5, 2010. Applications will be reviewed by the scholarship committee. Successful applicants will be interviewed during the week of February 15th. The scholarship will be presented at the 72nd session of the Redwood Region Logging Conference in Ukiah, California, on Saturday, March 27, 2010.
