REDWOOD REGION LOGGING CONFERENCE 2024 SCHOLARSHIP NOTICE:

Qualified Majors: Forestry
 Natural Resources
 Agriculture Business

Applications are being accepted for the following Scholarships:

Emanuel Fritz Memorial Scholarship

Professor Emanuel Fritz is known as a pioneer in the Redwood Region for his efforts in promoting the use and sustainability of second-growth redwood forests. He was instrumental in developing the California Forest Practice Rules, purchasing Jackson State Demonstration Forest, and founding the Redwood Region Logging Conference. This scholarship is provided to students in the spirit and memory of Emanuel Fritz.

Upon qualification, three cash scholarships up to $2,000 each will be awarded to a freshman, sophomore, junior, or returning senior who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate forestry or natural resources program at California Polytechnic State University, Cal Poly Humboldt, University of California Berkeley or Oregon State University.

Jere Melo Memorial Scholarship

Jere Melo was a long-time professional forester in the Fort Bragg area. He graduated with a degree in forestry from UC Berkeley and moved to Fort Bragg in 1966. He was on the job in August 2011 when he was murdered while investigating a reported marijuana grow on private timberland. His wife, Madeleine, established the Jere Melo Scholarship in 2011.

Upon qualification, up to a $2,000 scholarship(s) will be awarded to a freshman, sophomore, junior, or returning senior who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate forestry program at California Polytechnic State University, Cal Poly Humboldt, University of California Berkeley, or Oregon State University. This award will specifically target students who plan to become a Registered Professional Forester.

Kent & Larry Holmgren Memorial Scholarship

Kent L. Holmgren was a fourth-generation Humboldt County resident. He was a timberland owner, a logger, a registered professional forester, and a sawmill owner. He served on the College of the Redwoods Advisory Board and the Redwood Region Logging Conference Board. He was a Forest Landowners of California and the Association of California Loggers member.

Larry Holmgren was the son of Kent & Shirley Holmgren. Larry started out working for Simonson Timber, was an independent faller, a logger for Eel River Sawmill, and ended up procuring logs for Schmidbauer. He served on the RRLC Board and the Pacific Logging Congress Board and was the Northern California Log Scaling and Grading Bureau Vice President. He was instrumental in developing the RRLC High School Forestry competition and Scholarships programs.

Upon qualification, up to two cash scholarships of $1,000 will be awarded to a freshman or sophomore who is currently enrolled in the forestry program at the College of the Redwoods (CR) and has at least 2 semesters left in the year before graduation. Person(s) completing their final semester at CR who have been accepted at an accredited forestry school to continue their forestry education are also eligible.

RRLC Agriculture Business Scholarship

The Redwood Region Logging Conference is offering a scholarship(s) up to $1,000.

Qualifications: Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or Returning Senior who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate Agricultural Economics or Business major at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, CSU in Chico, Cal Poly Humboldt, Fresno State University, and UC Davis.

Target Individuals: Undergrad students pursuing a bachelor's degree in Agricultural Economics or Business. The strongest candidates will be those individuals pursuing a career within the Wood Products or Resource Management Industries of the Redwood Region (Del Norte, Humboldt, Trinity, Mendocino, and Lake Counties). Local students will be strongly considered. Majors may include, but are not limited to, Agricultural Business, Business Management, and Finance.

Those interested in any of the above scholarships need to complete the two-page application.

In addition, you will need to submit all college transcripts (unofficial) with your application.

SUBMIT A CURRENT PHOTO OF YOURSELF VIA EMAIL. JPG or. PNG FORMAT

Note: You must be planning to return to college in the Fall.

All material should be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, FEBRUARY 2, 2024. Applications will be reviewed by the scholarship committee and qualified applicants will be interviewed. The scholarship(s) will be presented at the 86th session during the Membership Meeting at the Redwood Region Logging Conference in Eureka, on Friday, March 15, 2024 (attendance not required but highly encouraged).
